THE RESERVATION MURDERERS.

The four men arrested for the murder of Holland and Carter, at the reservation, have been brought into Proche and are confined in the jail at that place. The Eureka Sentinel, of the 18th gives this additional intelligence:

We understand that their prelimi nary examination was set for yester day, and if they are held, of which there is no doubt, they will be conveyed to Reno for trial. They are all young fellows, their ages ringing from twenty to twenty-two years, and hail from the neighborhood of Los Angeles, California. One of the number, McManus, was woundad in the arm, and in the flight of the band after the murder, was abandoned by his comrades, his Trizencess of Osburn & Shoemaker | would pained him to such an extent as to render horseback riding an impessibility. MoManus shouted back that he need not be afraid of a dead man, and gave bimself up without any resustance. The wound in his arm was in a horrible condition, it having commenced to mortify from want of care and proper attention. The arm was attended to after the prisoner reached Pioche, and McManus will accompany the balance of the prisoners on their trip to Reno. The gang is very retiernt and has nothing to my in regard to the murder.
